PREFACE

This volume is a continuation of the Vital Record Series of Connecticut, the first being the records of the towns of Bolton and Vernon, published by the Connecticut Historical Society, 1909, and the second and third of the town of Norwich, published by the Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Connecticut, 1913.

The Records of Woodstock have lately been repaired and entries on the margins of the leaves are missing in many places, as will be observed from the text. Where possible the missing information has been supplied from the Church Records and other sources and this has been bracketed.

The thanks of the Committee are due to the courtesy of Mr. Frank E. Barrett, of North Woodstock, the present town clerk, for his assistance in the prosecution of this task and to Miss Irene Howe Mix, of Hartford, for the careful proof-reading and indexing.

PREFATORY NOTE

Woodstock was incorporated as a town in 1690 by Massachusetts, although the first settlement there was as early as April 1686, and was known as New Roxbury or Quatosett. The land was granted in 1663 by the Colony of Massachusetts to the town of Roxbury and practically all of its first settlers came from there. The leaders in its settlement were Peter Aspinwall, Thomas Bacon, Henry Bowen, Matthew Davis, John Frissell, Nathaniel Geary, Benjamin Griggs, George Griggs, Joseph Lord, John Marcy, Ebenezer Morris, Benjamin Sabin and Jonathan Smithers. Not all of these remained there, but the company was soon augmented by others from Roxbury.

Woodstock was a part of Massachusetts until May, 1749, since which time it has been under the jurisdiction of Connecticut. It comprises nearly sixty square miles, and its population from 1756 to 1910 has been as follows:

1756	•		1366
1774			2054
1790			2445
1800	•		2463
1810	•		2654

The Records of two of the Churches of Woodstock are extant and they have been printed serially in the Putnam Patriot, a weekly newspaper of Windham County.

A comprehensive history of Woodstock has been ably written by Miss Ellen Larned in her History of Windham County Connecticut.

VITAL STATISTICS NO. 1, 1686-1744

[Of the original volume which is herewith reproduced there is in existence and in constant use a copy, made by Elisha Child, Town Clerk of Woodstock, 1763-1783. This copy contains entries which do not appear in the original and their source is not known. These are printed in italics.

The original has been preserved by the Emery process and the new pagination is followed. The first leaf contains cattlemarks only and the vital records begin on page 3 and extend through page 82. The remainder of the volume contains the

Town and Proprietor's Records of the South-Half of the town.]
